I feel as if I have repaid my debt to society and then some. I made a mistake as an 18-year old. I surrendered myself when the case was taking place. I showed up to all of my court visits. I never missed a restitution payment. I complied with all the instructions given to me by my probation officer(s) ~~at the~~ during my probation period. I never failed a drug test. To this day I don't smoke cigarettes or marijuana. And I have never drank alcohol. But still I am haunted by my past as I try to progress in my future. I have gotten fired from a few jobs upon a thorough look into my background. I have gotten turned away from plenty of promising prospects due to my background. I have not gotten into any criminal or legal issues since the close of this case. I want to live life as a model American citizen. My last contracted employer almost ran into problems when it came to hiring me. They suggested that I go about having my record expunged as soon as possible. I took the initiative upon myself to fly from a near by city and tend to this business right away. Please consider expunging my record so that I can obtain the bright future that awaits me.

I can provide many references if needed. I have a lot of wonderful people that want to see ~~my~~ me prosper.

Thanks!

Kameron Freeman
